A truly spectacular finca-style villa, with a light spacious feel. For a relaxing tranquil holiday this property has a lot to offer. All modern luxury features have been provided to make this an enjoyable place to stay. Stunning! The star feature has to be the location, without a doubt. Private. not overlooked. Fabulous views, and a lovely pool/terrace area compact enough to enjoy but with space for all to move. Interior: Furnished tastefully in a modern style but in keeping with the character of this lovely property. The current owners, , have bought new furniture, including new sunbeds. Wooden beamed ceilings are just one of the many features. Entrance via the large covered naya into the open-plan kitchen lounge area, with open archway to a very spacious dining room. Here there is an extra seating/lounge space for relaxing. The high beamed ceilings give a feeling of grandeur to the lounge. From the galleried landing there is a seating area that can be used for relaxing/reading or just to observe the floor below. A/C unit on this landing will keep the whole area serviced. There is a sofa bed for extra guests if needed. The kitchen is fully fitted with all amenities and plenty of...
