Modern and rustic features go together well: this property is a classic example of how it can be done. A location for tranquility. Stunning outside area. A well-maintained property with all modern facilities. A truly delightful property that is very light and bright for a finca that has old-style charm. A holiday here will relax and give you a feeling of real Spain in a rustic Spanish village. The location of this finca is perfect for a walking/cycling holiday- as there is a lock up shed especially for equipment. The surrounding areas make this a haven for these activities. Interior: Entrance is by large doors into open-plan lounge / dining / kitchen&mdash;each area having a separate feel. There is a door from the lounge to the south-facing terrace. Plenty of seating in lounge. Dining area with rustic wood furniture. The kitchen was brand-new in 2017 and is in keeping with the finca style but with a lovely modern feel in a soft grey colour. All modern facilities here. Plenty of cupboard space and lots of cooking utensils&mdash;supplied. There is an archway to the bedrooms and bathrooms. This property is all on one level with high beamed ceilings throughout, keeping the rooms very c...
