Interior: All this property is on one level. As you step inside into a hallway the feeling of a warm well-maintained property greets you. The spacious lounge with the most amazing views has a chimney with gas fire and double-glazed widows, plus patio doors that lead out onto a larger than average terrace, with your pool in front giving the illusion of infinity. The open-plan kitchen is separated by a breakfast bar and has traditional quality cupboards, a large gas hob and electric oven. The window from the kitchen has views to the mountains and this whole room is light and airy due to the villa facing true South. From the lounge you access the bedrooms via a corridor with all rooms leading off. All windows have shutters and mosquito nets and are white double-glazed units. A large under-build is currently used for storage but could be developed if needed. Bedrooms: 3 - all doubles, all with fitted wardrobes. The larger master bedroom has an air-conditioning unit installed and has a double door access to the covered terrace. En-suite shower room. Electric radiators, Wash rooms: A full bathroom with bath and shower over plus quality tiles and fittings. the en-sui...
